

'The Magic Flute' At the Opera

By Sylvester Rawling.
"Mozart's 'The Magic Flute,' sung in German, began the second week of opera at the Metropolitan Opera House last night. The performance, under the able direction of Alfred Hertz, was excellent. Carl Braun was an impressive Sarastro, Erika Hempel as the Queen of Night, and Emmy Destinn as Pamina. Jacques Urus as Tamino, Otto Gortz as Papageno, and Albert Heise as Monostatos, maintained their familiar roles to the satisfaction of everybody. Elizabeth Schumann, as Papagena sang well but did not eclipse the memory of Bella Altien. In the cast appeared Rita Forina, Lenora Sparkes, Lila Robeson, Marie Matfield, Vera Curtis and Louise Cox, old favorites. Carl Schlegel was the Speaker, and Paul Althouse and Julius Beyer were the Chief Priests. Loomis Taylor was the stage manager. The audience was the strength of the subscription only and to his discredit it began to leave early.

Frank Gittelsohn, the young Philadelphia violinist who made his New York debut recently with the Symphony Orchestra, gave a recital at Acolian Hall yesterday afternoon. His programme included the Bach chorale for violin alone, three national dances by Dvorak, Sarasate and Brahms, a concerto in B minor by Pietro Nardini, and a concerto in B major by A. D'Ambrósio. He added two or three extra numbers in response to the demand of his large and friendly audience. Mr. Gittelsohn played with the technical efficiency and the good tone which were recognized upon his first appearance; but he has yet to absorb the soul of the compositions he seeks to interpret. He is young, however, and full of promise.

Alfred Hema, the Swiss-Arabian baritone, and Lawrence Goodman, pianist, will give a joint recital at The von Ende School of Music this evening. Both are members of the faculty.

HERRICK NOT HURRIED OUT.

Wilson Deales Paris Story and Features Retiring Ambassador.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Reports cabled from Paris that Ambassador Herrick was being hurried from his post there in order that his successor, William G. Sharp of Ohio, might take charge of the situation, and that this action followed visits to the White House by Senator Donnell of Ohio, came in for denial by the President today. He praised Herrick's work in the highest terms, and said that he had been retained at his post longer than France legal owing to war conditions in France.

ANGUS ENDED HIS LIFE WHEN HIS SHIP CAME IN BUT DIDN'T GO OUT

Pathetic Letter Found on Body of Man Taken From Jersey Canal.

The body of Angus McLeod was found today in the canal at the foot of Morris street, Jersey City. Papers on the body were pathetic chapters of a struggle against hard times. The dead man was apparently fifty years old. He had travelled to New York, Philadelphia, Hackensack and other places for Hutchins & Co. of Elizabeth, N. J., according to memoranda he had kept of his expenses, which he charged to the account of the firm. He had lived in Bayonne. A letter, evidently from his wife in Cape Breton, N. S., was found in one of the pockets. It was signed "Cynthia," and advised her "dear Angus" to go to Chester, Pa., and there find the ship Orin in case he had no money, and that he could get home to her. "Dan will speak to the captain," the letter read. "The boat docks just across from Dan's store. Let us know. We can see the pier where she docks from our bedroom window. The ship sails about the 15th, and takes five days and five nights to come. Tell the captain you are a brother of D. D. McLeod of North Centre. I didn't tell any one about our circumstances. I hated to do so. The board won't cost you anything, for Dan furnishes it with provisions, and he will settle that for you if you are short."

Another letter was found from the captain of the ship which told McLeod that the vessel was not going back to Cape Breton, having been chartered for a voyage to Europe. This, apparently, was McLeod's last hope of joining his family in Cape Breton. He had filled out a money order blank for ten dollars in the name of Mrs. A. D. McLeod, North River Centre, signed by A. D. McLeod of No. 44 Orient street, Jersey City, N. J., but evidently had been unable to get the money with which to turn in the application. No money was found on the body.

WHY HE AVOIDED HIM.
(From the Kansas City Star.)
"Look at that foolish Mr. Baker," said one man to another, "out on a rainy day like this without an umbrella. Is he crazy?"
"I guess so," said his friend, hurriedly. "Let's hurry on. I don't want to meet him."
"Why not?"
"He may recognize this umbrella. It's his."

WURZBURGER HERE AGAIN.

With Pilsener It Comes From Germany to Make Many Merry.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Pilsener and Wurzbürger beer, imported from Germany and not from St. Louis, Cincinnati and Milwaukee, are flowing afresh in the United States after an interruption of several months because of the war. Importers have succeeded in establishing a safe route for bringing the beer to the United States from Germany by way of Copenhagen. The first shipment arrived here yesterday. The tapping of the first kegs will be celebrated to-night in many German restaurants which have been serving American "imported beer" since the war closed the genuine German beer spigot.

EXPERT OPINION.
(From the Washington Star.)
"How do you account for the high price of meat?" asked the plain person. "By its scarcity," replied the expert. "And what causes its scarcity?"
"The fact that it is so expensive."

STOPS FALLING HAIR

This Home Made Mixture Stops Dandruff and Falling Hair and Aids Its Growth.

To a half pint of water add:
Bay Rum 1 oz.
Barbo Compound 1 oz.
Glycerine 1 oz.

These are all simple ingredients that you can buy from any druggist at very little cost, and mix them yourself. Apply to the scalp once a day for two weeks, then once every other week until all the mixture is used. A half pint should be enough to rid the head of dandruff and kill the dandruff germs. It stops the hair from falling out, relieves itching and scalp diseases.

Although it is not a dye, it acts upon the hair roots and will darken streaked, faded, gray hair in ten or fifteen days. It promotes the growth of the hair and makes hair soft and glossy.—Advt.
